In order to be eligible to receive George M. Cohen Senior Player of the Year points, players must compete in at least one Mass Golf sponsored event included in the point system (including qualifiers). Any player who is exempt into a USGA Championship Proper will earn the points associated with a qualifier for each respective USGA Championship Proper. Any points earned by a senior competitor in the Richard D. Haskell Player of the Year standings will be added to their Senior Player of the Year standings. (Note: A player will be awarded points for only ONE regional event included on the Richard D. Haskell points system. Their best finish will be counted). The final decision of the George M. Cohen Senior Player of the Year rests with the Mass Golf Board of Directors.
