Architect

The Mass Open will be contested at Sacconnesset Golf Club considered a “modern classic,” as the Rees Jones-designed layout is recognized as the last new course to be built on raw land on Cape Cod. Just like in 2017, the course can be set up to play at just over 7,000 yards and has ample landing areas and a risk-and-reward approach to its greens. Its numerous bunkers are often the greatest defense of the golf course.

Who Can Enter

Entries are open to professionals as well as amateur golfers who have an active Handicap Index® not exceeding 2.4 (at the time of registration).

2024 Champion

Brandon Berry (Great Falls, VA) captured the 114th Massachusetts Open title at Willowbend with a dramatic eagle on the final hole, edging out Brookline amateur James Imai. After a double bogey on 17, the 25-year-old pro from Virginia delivered a clutch 3-wood and 7-iron into the wind to set up the winning putt. The Loyola (MD) grad, who played in two PGA Tour events this spring, called the victory, his first multi-day win as a professional, the highlight of his young career.

What the Winner Receives

The Clarence G. Cochrane Memorial Trophy and a gold medal will be presented to the Champion, and The Commonwealth Cup will be presented to the Low Amateur Champion. A professional purse of $75,000 will be distributed to the low fifty (50) finishers and ties, with $15,000 going to the winner. Merchandise certificates will also be awarded and are only redeemable at the host site.

Championship History

This is the 115th Massachusetts Open Championship. Beginning in 1905 with Donald Ross' victory at Vesper Country Club, the Mass Open has provided some of the most defining moments in Massachusetts golf history. The event will take place over three days of competition featuring the region's top professional and amateur golfers.

The event has been won by many well-known figures in golf history, both amateurs and professionals alike. Noteworthy names include Gene Sarazen, Byron Nelson, Horton Smith, Julius Boros, Paul Harney, Dana Quigley, Geoffrey Sisk, Rob Oppenheim and Evan Harmeling. Francis Ouimet, Jesse Guilford, Don Hoenig, Kevin Johnson, and Kevin Quinn all won as amateurs. In 1919, Jesse Guilford became the first amateur to win the title, and the 1921 U.S. Amateur champion won it again in 1929. Francis Ouimet, winner of the 1913 U.S. Open, took home his lone Mass Open title in 1932.
